Row in the Democratic Camp.

The Idaho Statesman, of March 16th, has the following concerning the printing material of the Times:

"A private correspondent at Idaho City sends us the following account of an interesting quarrel now in progress there, between the would-be chiefs and mouthpieces of Idaho democracy. It is rather long, but serves to illustrate the leading characters:

"We came near having a free fight here last night about the possession of the printing material upon which the Times has been printed. It was one of the most rascally transactions in the annals of Idaho ruffian democracy. The country ought to know the circumstances. Many of your readers will recollect that last year Pat Malone was induced by the promises of democrats to bring up to Idaho a printing office. They failed to redeem those promises, and Malone's presses lay at Umatilla for six or eight months, subject to demands to the amount of over three thousand dollars. At last, when all hope of the democracy redeeming their obligations vanished, Malone rented the material to the Union party, to print a campaign paper on—they paying for its use for several weeks, the sum of $2,500. This paid the demand upon it from below, to within about $500. Tom Foye, the ex-assessor of this county, paid this $500, and got the printing material into his possession as security, with the understanding that he and Malone would settle the matter between themselves. Then Foye, with Malone's consent, rented the material to Shepherd & Co. for six months, at $160 a month, and deeded one-half interest in the whole affair to Rev. A. T. Poulin, Catholic priest of this place, in trust for John T. Malone, a son of P. J. Malone. The first $300 of the rent was paid to the holder of this deed the next day after its execution. Malone and his son then started below. While they were gone, Foye was prevailed upon by the cajolery of Jimsy O'Merely, otherwise known as "Dennis," to sell all his right, title and interest in the concern, and to transfer the lease to Bowman & Co., for a promise to pay Foye the sum of $1,000, and to get Foye a relief bill through the last legislature. The former has never been paid, and never will be, and the latter remains unperformed to this day. Foye claims that he sold only a half interest in the concern to Bowmon & Co, They claim it all. The lease to Shepherd expired yesterday. The evening before Malone arrived from below, with the proper papers to take possession of the half interest deeded by Foye to Father Poulin. And here commenced the sharp practice of O'Meara & Co. As the assignees of Foye's lease to Shepherd, they got possession of the printing material, and commenced removing it against the remonstrance of Malone. Malone took possession of the house, having had Shepherd's lease of it transferred to him, and ordered Jimsy and his party out. All went out but O'Meara. Malone locked the door and took up arms to defend his house and property. Meanwhile, Ike Bowman swore out a warrant against Malone, and got Sheriff Crutcher to arrest him under it, and take him before Justice Donahue. This was what the Bowman party wanted, to get Malone out of the way. While Malone was before the Justice, Bowman collected a crowd and removed all the printing material to the house of one of his creatures named Turner. Malone intends to prosecute for the recovery of his rights, but O'Meara swears he shall never get a cent, as the deed to Father Poulin, he says, is worthless. And such is the cunning trikster who sets himself up as a teacher of democracy in this region. The facts in the case are well known to all of the community, and none but the most bare-faced scoundrel would try to shield himself from the performance of justice by a mere technicality, even if the deed by Foye to Poulin was not strictly legal. The object of all this sharp practice is to cheat Malone and prevent the publication of any other paper but the World here. But there will be another paper here, in spite of O'Meara. As for Malone, he almost deserves what he got, for putting faith in the unmitigated, rascally democratic ruffians of Idaho City. I think the dose will cure him of democracy."

PACKED FOR PARIS.—The specimens of mineral from the Reese River region, for the Paris Exposition, were packed yesterday afternoon. The lot comprises eleven boxes and three packages; the huge specimens from the Silver Bend Company's vein, the Timoke, and the Diana, are sewed up in hide. The first named specimen weighs 650 pounds. The boxes are well made, and are thirty inches long, fifteen inches deep, and fifteen inches broad, and will weigh, with their specimens, about 300 pounds each. Each box is securely strapped by three iron bands, and is plainly marked, "Paris Exposition—David E. Buell, care U. S. Commissioner, Paris." They will be sent westward immediately.—*R. R. Salt Lake City, November 5, 1866.

The Report of the Judiciary Committee.

About a month since we printed the brief synopsis of the Report of the House Judiciary Committee on the memorial of the Utah Legislature asking for a repeal of the Anti-Polygamy law of July 1st, 1862. Below will be found the report in full, which is of sufficient interest to our readers to excuse the exclusion of the usual editorial matter:

"Washington, February 28, 1867.

"The Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the memorial of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, praying for the repeal of 'An Act to prevent and punish the practice of polygamy in the Territories of the United States,' respectfully report that they have considered the said memorial and reached the following conclusions thereon:

"The statute which we are asked to repeal provides."

SECTION 1. That any person having a husband or wife living, who shall marry any other person, whether married or single, in a Territory of the United States, or other place, over which the United States shall have exclusive jurisdiction, shall be adjudged guilty of bigamy, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, and by imprisonment not exceeding five years.

SECTION 2. Annuls all acts and laws of the Territory of Utah which establish, protect, maintain or countenance the practice of polygamy, evasively called spiritual marriage, however designated by legal or ecclesiastical solemnities, sacraments, ceremonies, consecration or other contrivances.

"The effect of the repeal of this Act would be to establish the system of polygamy in Utah by the concurrence of the Congress of the United States.

"The law organizing the Territory of Utah, under which the Legislative Assembly of Utah acted in passing the Acts which are annulled by the Act of Congress, to punish and prevent polygamy in the Territories of the United States, provides as follows: 'All laws passed by the Legislative Assembly and Governor shall be submitted to the Congress of the United States, and if disapproved, shall be null and of no effect.'

"The prayer of the memorialists then is this: That the people of the United States, through their Representatives in Congress, shall, by an affirmative Act, allow and sanction the practice of polygamy in the Territories of the United States, which also implies that the establishment of polygamy shall not prevent the admission of the Territory as a State in the Union upon an equal footing with the original States.

"The reasons assigned by the memorialists for such action are as follows: 'Upwards of fourteen years ago the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints did publicly avow and proclaim its belief in the doctrine of plurality of wives as of divine origin and as a portion of religious faith, and that therefore said law is contrary to the spirit of the Constitution and directly in conflict with the first amendment thereof, which provides that Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, and that the law is ex post facto.'

"Polygamy has formed a part of almost every system of heathenism and barbarism. A subversion of the true marriage relation has characterized them, with scarce an exception; polygamy has been legalized, and in some cases prostitution has been a part of the religious system, the effect being in both cases the same, both alike destroying the original and divine constitution of society.

"The practice of polygamy has been deemed one of the highest crimes against society by the common consent of all Christian nations. Every State in the Union has passed laws inflicting upon those guilty of its practice the punishment prescribed for felons whose presence cannot be tolerated among their fellow men. Every denomination of Christian people in the land (with the single and comparatively very small exception of that calling itself 'the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints,') holds as a portion of its religious faith 'that the practice of polygamy is an offence against God and a crime againt society;' and in the opinion of your Committee no greater outrage upon the freedom of religious faith could be perpetrated than to require the Christian people of the nation to sanction and approve by law a practice so deeply offensive and revolting to them, or to become responsible to any extent for a system which according to their religious belief, 'held and proclaimed' (not merely for fourteen years, 'but more than eighteen centuries,') is the embodiment of all that is wicked and debasing in social life.

"The equality in number of the sexes is conclusive proof of the design of the Creator that one woman only should be the wife of one man. The marriage relation thus constituted is the foundation of the family and of the State.

"It is no violation of the first amendment of the Constitution to punish crimes against society, although some man or association of men may avow and proclaim that the practice of such crime is of divine origin, that it is a portion of his or their religious faith. If it were so, an entire immunity from punishment would be [illegible] by every one willing to add hypocrisy and ignorance to any other offence of which he might be guilty. The argument used by the memorialists, if it were sound, would prove that if any association of individuals should be formed which should, as a part of its avowed and proclaimed 'religious faith,' [illegible] that all marriages should be [illegible] the family [illegible] conferred to this country, laws against the practice of their religion and the ordinances of the States or of the National Government would be unconstitutional. If this law of Congress be in direct conflict with the first amendment of the Constitution, as alleged, then the laws of any State which punish bigamy and the law of Congress which punishes bigamy in the District of Columbia, are also unconstitutional, and the family relations cannot be protected without a violation of the Constitution, because any citizen has the same constitutional right to exercise his religion and its ordinances in any State that he has in Utah. The law is manifestly not an ex post facto law, because it does not assume to punish any act committed before its passage.

"Your Committee believe that it is proper that the memorialists and all others who, within the Territories of the United States, are disregarding the law referred to, should be assured in the most certain and authoritative manner, that the laws will be enforced; that the people of the United States will never consent to tolerate in this country a relic of barbarism destructive alike to the family and the State, and utterly abhorrent to the moral sense of the nation, and that a persistent violation of this law will certainly be followed by the punishment prescribed by it. The Committee desire to call the attention of the House to the following statemens of the memorial: 'Whereas, the Judiciary of this Territory has not, up to the present time, tried any case under said law, though repeatedly urged to do so by those who have been anxious to test its constitutionality.' Your committee have not been able to ascertain the reason why this has not been enforced. The humiliating fact is however apparent that the law is at present practically a dead letter in the Territory of Utah, and that the gravest necessity exists for its enforcement, and in the opinion of the Committee, if it be through the fault of the Judiciary of that Territory that the law is not enforced, the Judges should be removed without delay, and others appointed in their stead, and that if the failure to execute the law arise from other causes, that it becomes the duty of the President of the United States to see that the law is faithfully executed, and inasmuch as it is proper that a distinct answer should be given by this House to a memorial coming from the Legislative Assembly of a Territory upon a subject of such interest and importance, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this House that the law of the United States, entitled 'An Act to Prevent and Punish the Practice of Polygamy in the Territories of the United States,' ought not to be repealed, but that it should be fully enforced, and that if the Judges of the Courts refuse or neglect to enforce the same, alleged in the memorial of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, they should be removed from office; and that if for reasons beyond the control of said Judges, said law is not enforced in any Territory, it becomes the duty of the President of the United States to take care that it be faithfully executed.

"The report was agreed to."

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

Washington, March 25.

In the Senate, Wilson moved that the Secretary be ordered to request the House to return the resolution for adjournment, with the view to a reconsideration of the vote by which it passed the Senate. Wilson explained, and said that he wished, if possible, to fix a day between now and December on which Congress might be called together if necessary. Agreed to.

Nye presented a memorial from the Grand Council of the Union League of Maryland, asking that the provisions of the Military Reconstruction bill be extended to Maryland. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Sherman, from the Finance Committee, reported House resolution that money amounting to several millions of dollars, the proceeds of property captured during the Rebellion, was now in the hands of the United States Treasurer, which, as it now stands, may be disposed of in settling claims preferred by alleged former owners, without the sanction of Congress, and that it shall at once be conveyed by warrant of the Treasury, only to be drawn by authority of law.

In the House, the following bills were introduced: Bill to provide for the temporary government of the Territory of Lincoln; referred to Territorial Committee. Bill repealing an Act authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to retire four million dollars from circulation monthly; referred to Committee of the Whole. The Illinois Ship Canal bill was referred to the Committee on Roads and Canals. Bill granting lands in aid of the construction of certain railroads in Dakota; referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

The Act changing the location of the capital of Montana, passed.

The concurrent resolution that each House shall adjourn the present session on the 28th of March, to assemble the first Wednesday in May, June, September, and November, unless the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House shall, by joint proclamation ten days before either of those dates, declare that there is no occasion for a meeting of Congress at such time, was adopted—88 to 32.

A resolution that Smythe, Collector of New York, shall appear by counsel before the Committee on Public Expenditures, and produce witness in his own defence, passed—8 to 35.

The Senate joint resolution prohibiting persons in the Diplomatic service of the United States from wearing any uniform not previously authorized by Congress, passed.

A resolution that the House express its earnest desire that the people of the States lately in rebellion will, in the reorganization of the same in accordance with existing laws for that purpose, [illegible] in their respective State Constitutions a provision requiring their Legislatures to establish a system of free schools which shall afford adequate opportunity for the [illegible] of all children of each State [illegible]. Adopted.

[illegible] introduced a bill to incorporate the Lincoln Monument Association of the District of Columbia. Also, [illegible] calling upon the Secretary of the Interior for information as to the cause of the suspension of work on the Pacific Railroad, and what further legislation is necessary to secure its speedy completion. Adopted.

Nye introduced a bill to amend the Organic Act of Colorado Territory, by providing that the session of its Legislature be biennial. Its immediate consideration was objected to.

The House resolution for adjournment was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

While in Executive session, adjourned.

New York, March 25.

European steamers arrived to-day, report that the Fenian agitation continues, but no collisions have occurred. It is represented that the military force in Ireland is now so placed, that in no part of West Ireland could any body of armed men hold together twenty-four hours without certainly receiving exemplary punishment. The flying columns were producing a decidedly good moral effect.

Washington, March 25.

The Senate, in Executive session, to-day, confirmed the nomination of Benjamin Simpson as Indian Agent for Oregon.

Internal Revenue receipts last week were over $2,000,000.

There is a large and rapidly increasing party in the Senate, who will be unwilling to vote for the admission of any rebel State that does not go in for the education of the people.

Baltimore, March 24.

The bill authorizing an election for new municipal officers for the City of Baltimore, failed to pass.

St. Louis, March 25.

The damage to bridges, trestle work, etc., on the Union Pacific railroad, Eastern Division, by the late flood has been repaired. The track is completed 450 miles west of St. Louis, and is being laid at the rate of one mile per day.

New York, March 25.

California flour is more active and firmer, with sales at $14.50 @ 15.75. Stocks easy. Freights to Liverpool dull at three half pence for corn.

The bank statement is very unfavorable, but was generally discounted. Decreased loans, $3,672,657; do. specie, $824,809; do. legal tenders, $1,908,081; do. deposits, $5,583,189.

The cotton goods trade is only fairly active, and prices heavy; sheetings a half lower; prints moderately steady.

Portland, Me., March 25.

The steamship Nestorian, from Liverpool, the 15th, has arrived. The Pall Mall Gazette says: "We have reason to believe that some recent overtures of Sir Frederick Bruce, in behalf of his government, in the matter of the arbitration of the Alabama claims, have not been received in a conciliatory spirit by Seward. We don't understand why the offer of the British representatives should have been directly refused, but at two interviews the subject was evaded."

New York, March 26.

A Paris correspondent says, that Stephens and a number of American officers are in Paris, and are quite innocent of the rising in Ireland, which took them by surprise. The Opinione Nationale, of Paris, has an article on the Fenian movement, in which it hints that the government connived at rebellion in the interest of Russia, as a means of embarrassing England at the critical moment of her diplomacy on the Eastern question.

The Committee of the Common Council have reported in favor of the selection of Union or Madison Squares as a site for a post-office.

The Herald's Matamoras special denies the report of the defeat of the Liberals near Queretaro, by a force under Maximilian. The Liberal lines are within seven miles of that place.

Governor Patton, of Alabama, has published a long letter, in which he advises the people to accept the terms proposed by Congress for reconstruction, cheerfully, and carry out the law faithfully.

The Herald's Richmond correspondence says, that John Minor Botts recently called upon General Schofield and gave him some advice regarding the manner in which the new powers delegated to the General as commander of the district should be applied. No reply was vouchsafed to him, however, and he left, feeling himself snubbed.

The press are all turning their attention to securing negro votes, and Hunnicutt's paper warns the colored people against voting for rebels. In Louisiana, similar efforts are being made by politicians, who, a month ago, were definitely bent on not voting at all if the negro did. Now they call upon their leaders to sacrifice themselves, and the negro to vote with their old masters and best friends.

The first act of General Sheridan, under the new athority, it is reported, will be to remove Mayor Monroe and the secession municipal government. Governor Wells and the General, who have been enemies since the riots, have resumed amicable relations.

The Grand Army of the Republic, an association of discharged Federal soldiers, numbers 7,000 men in two parishes of the State alone, and is extending all over the State.

Accounts of lawless outrages in North Carolina are still reported.

A Times' Washington special dispatch says, it is stated on good authority that the caucus which induced the Senate to recall its resolution for adjournment until December, and which likewise shaped the action of the House to-day on this subject, were intimations from General Grant and Secretary Stanton that it might be injurious to the progress of reconstruction, under the Military Bill, for Congress to adjourn until December, without making provision for coming together in the meantime, if necessary.

Information was received to-day that the Montana bonds, supposed to have been lost in the Southern Hotel, New York, have been received.

A Tribune special says the postponement of action on the [illegible] of Congress was [illegible] in the South, and [illegible] General Grant [illegible] [illegible] of the Convention [illegible] new constitution [illegible] Maryland [illegible] aid from Congress.

The Lake Chapala and Rio Grande Steam Navigation and Commercial Company of Mexico are having a number of small iron steamboats built in this city by Duncan Cameron.

A man named Reynolds, in attempting to jump from the front platform of a Sansome street car yesterday, fell with his right ankle across the track. The front wheel passed over it, crushing it so that amputation may be necessary.

The principal feature of to-day's celebration was the procession, which was a credit to the Irishmen of this city. Every Irish society and military organization as well as a large number of citizens on foot and in carriages, joined in the parade. Every society bore the harp and sunburst of Erin, and the stars and stripes at their head.

San Francisco, March 19.

The French transport ship Dorado, which arrived yesterday from Tahiti, is the first of a regular line of government vessels that are to make monthly trips to this port. The successful working of the Atlantic telegraph cable, virtually bringing San Francisco into about hourly communication with Paris, has induced the French Government to transfer their base of supplies from Valparaiso to this city. The Euryle, the next transport, and which is to bring the Governor of Tahiti as passenger, was to leave in a month after the sailing of the Dorado. We are informed that the Governor on his arrival will advertise for proposals to furnish the great bulk of the subsistence supplies for all the French forces in Tahiti and other stations in that section of the South Pacific. The value of these stores will amount to several hundred thousand dollars annually, the larger portion consisting of flour, grain, beef, bread, pork, and other domestic productions of California.

United States Marshal Rand, to-day made seizures of the books and papers of B. E Auger & Co., Edward DeRutte, P. Maury, J. Dubedat & Co., and H. Schroder & Co., importers of French wines, to be used as evidence for the Government in certain wine cases, some of which are likely to come on for trial to-morrow in the United States District Court. The parties above named, and claimants in the several suits brought for the confiscation of certain wines in bottle and bulk, which were seized by the Custom House officers during James' administration as Collector. The suit of the United States vs. Kohler & Frohling is on trial in the United States Circuit Court to-day. The action is brought to procure a confiscation of certain California wines and brandies valued at $30,000, which were seized by the Internal Revenue officers for alleged false returns made by claimants as to the quantity of wines and brandies manufactured by them during the year 1865.

An adjourned meeting of the Mechanics Institute was held last evening to consider the propriety of holding an Industrial Fair the present year. The Board of Directors were instructed to secure a suitable location to hold the fair in August or September, 1868.

LOUIS A. GARNETT,........President and Manager
JOHN HEWSTON, Jr....Chemist and Superintendent

This Company having greatly enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

The Tariff of Charges

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Gold Bars.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Silver Bars.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent. for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Refining Deposits made for Coin or Fine Bars.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

For Coining Gold.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

Returns in Coin Made in Forty-Eight Hours.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

Charges at U. S. Branch Mint.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that Institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.

For refinung bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

830 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 11 cents.

865 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents. [mr21-3m-ia

THE St. Louis Democrat announces the death in that city, at the hospital, on the 25th ult., of Capt. Jo. Byrne. He had been declining in health for years, and at the last was the mere tottering wreck of the handsome and talented man he had been. Capt. Jo. Byrne some years ago was one of the most popular steamboat clerks of the Upper Mississippi, and on several occasions had temporary command of steamers. His parents, who are in respectable and comfortable circumstances, are living, and reside in LaSalle, or some town near it in Illinois.

A WRITER in the New York Herald, from Chihuahua, describes a footrace between four women a distance of one hundred and nine miles, which was made in thirteen hours and twenty mintes.

THE latest speculation on foot is said to be a project to lay pipes from Titusville, Pennsylvania, to New York, for the purpose of transporting oil in competition with the railroads. The estimated capital is $5,000,000.

ALTHOUGH the Capitol Police consists of only thirty men, there are already five hundred applicants for the positions, some of whom have served as Brigadier Generals.

A MAN named Martin Wymore, shot and instantly killed another named Williams, near Atchison, on the twenty-eighth ultimo.

THE Missouri River is open as fat as St. Joseph. It is said the ice will soon break at Omaha.

A DREADFUL FATE.—Much sympathy is expressed in the Lyons country papers for the fate of a young and [illegible] musician, who at the last French conscription was unfortunate enough to draw a mauvais numero, and he was sent out to join a regiment quartered at Vera Cruz. He was at once employed in the band. In consequence of his good conduct, Benoit Denis succeded in obtaining the Colonel's permission to perform at private balls and concerts, and thus gain a certain independence. On the 5th of last December, Benoit Denis, after executing a fantasia on the cornet a-piston at the country house of a wealthy American merchant residing near Vera Cruz, quitted the heated concert room to refresh himself in the pleasure grounds and enjoy the cool evening air. Feeling thirsty, he took up an alcaraza which he happened to see near the fountain, filled it with fresh water, and put it to his lips. Frightful screams attracted the company to the spot. Denis was lying on the earth, his hair on end, his features livid, the body and tail of a monster scolopender (mille pieds) protruding from his gaping mouth. The reptile, whose sting is more venomous than that of a scorpion had taken shelter from the heat in the cool porcelain beaker. As Benoit approached the vase to his lips the scolopender had sprung at his open throat. In vain was the reptile's body cut away. Once its fangs close on its prey it is impossible to tear them open. A surgeon who chanced to be among the guests proceeded to cut them out of the flesh, piece by piece; but by the time the operation was over the poison had produced its fatal results, and after three hours of agonizing convulsions the unfortunate young artist expired.

A CURIOUS CALCULATION.—The San Francisco Call says:

The National Debt of the United States is a weighty concern in more senses than one. A correspondent of the contemporary, who has cyphered it up, calculates that in silver it would weigh 57,940 tons, of 2,240 pounds each. In gold it would weigh 4,138 tons. To freight the amount in silver, 94 vessels, of 615 tons each, would be required. We may add, that loaded in a wagon train—a ton of silver in each wagon—allowing 40 feet for vehicle and team, the train of wagons would extend a distance of 439 miles; which train, following the regular route of travel, would reach from San Francisco to within two miles of the city of Austin, in the State of Nevada. There would be 57,940 wagons, 115,880 horses, and 57,940 drivers. It will take a long time to pay a debt which stretches out to such a distance. The debt amounts to $2,700,000,000. If in silver dollars, it would take eight men thirty-two years to count it, supposing that they could each count $60 in a minute, and work eight hours in a day, including Sundays. These dollars laid flat on the ground, with their edges touching each other, would extend a distance of 6,392 miles—a string of dollars reaching from here to New York and back again. The silver twisted into a rope, an eighth of an inch in diameter, would extend around all the States and Territories—a fine cord to bind the Union together.

A SINGULAR PREACHER.—The Wytheville (N. C.) Dispatch says that Mr. Peter Butner, of that town, a sort of preacher, who has always contended that he never would die, and consequently cautioned his friends not to be too hasty in burying him if death should apparently seize him in its cold embrace, was thrown into some sort of a trance a few days since, by which life to all appearances was entirely extinct. His friends remembering the warning he had given them, gave heed to it, and kept his body out of the grave for five days, at the end of which time unmistakable signs of life appeared in Peter's body; and in a few hours he was himself again!

HOW IT WAS DONE.—An Irishman, addicted to telling queer stories, said he saw a man beheaded with his hands tied behind him, who directly picked up his head and put it on his shoulders in the right place.

"Ha! ha! ha!" said a bystander. "How could he pick up his head when his hands were tied behind him?" "An' sure what a purty fool ye are!" said Pat. "Couldn't he pick it up with his tathe? To the devil wid yer botheration!"

VIRGINIA FINANCES.—The finances of Virginia, the chief city of the State, are in a most deplorable condition, judging from a report in the Enterprise that its scrip is worth but fifteen cents on the dollar. The county is but little better off, as county scrip, second class, is worth but thirty cents

A DUTCHMAN being asked how often he shaved, replied; "Dree dimes a week effery tay but Soontay; den I shaves effery tay."

IT is inquired if Lee, of Illinois, really gets the Opera House or only a drawing of it.

WHAT stone would you put at the gate of Eden after Adam was expelled? Adamantine (Adam an't in).

SIGN OF THE GILT ANCHOR!

DENVER, COLORADO,

Is not the 'Largest," but the MOST ELEGANT CLOTHING HOUSE in Colorado.

And from the East and to the West,
Are gentlemen dressed
In suits from Anker's Hall;
And none, as yet, was heard to regret
That he ever gave him a call.
He honestly deals,
And nothing conceals,
Regarding the wear of his clothes,
But speaks with the truth,
To man and to youth,
Which each of his customers knows.
Hence, friends, one and all,
Go to Anker's Hall,
Walk boldly—don't cowardly creep,
For there you'll find,
All obliging and kind,
With Clothing tremendously cheap.

The citizens of Utah, Idaho and Montana are at all times cordially invited to call at ANCHOR'S POPULAR CLOTHING HOUSE, when in Denver, and examine his most Elegant and Tasteful Stock of Goods, which will be sold at Prices Guaranteed Lower than the Lowest.
